SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION CORPORATION ACCOUNT PROTECTION

MSX Securities LLC ("MSX Securities") is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). SIPC protects against the loss of cash and securities – such as stocks and bonds – held by a customer at a financially-troubled SIPC-member brokerage firm. The limit of SIPC protection is $500,000, which includes a $250,000 limit for cash.

SIPC is not the same as or a substitute for Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") deposit insurance and it does not protect against declines in the market value of your securities. Any oral communication regarding your account should be re-confirmed in writing in order to protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970.

For more information about SIPC and the protections it provides, please visit SIPC's website at www.sipc.org. SIPC's website includes a brochure, "How SIPC Protects You," and an informational video, "What Is the Securities Protection Corporation?" You also may want to read FINRA's "Your Rights Under SIPC" webpage.

Important Information

Securities are offered by MSX Securities, which is a broker-dealer registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"). MSX Securities is a self-directed introducing broker-dealer that does not provide recommendations or investment advice. As an introducing broker-dealer, MSX Securities does not receive or hold customer funds or securities and securities customers of MSX Securities are introduced on a fully disclosed basis to Alpaca Securities LLC. Alpaca Securities LLC is an SEC-registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA and SIPC.

MSX Securities is not a bank and therefore securities products offered by MSX Securities are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). FDIC insurance covers the failure of an FDIC insured bank and does not protect against the failure of MSX Securities.
